ABOLITION DAY 2017

DEAR VENDOR:

Thank you for your interest in participating in the 2017 ABOLITION DAY Marketplace. This year's event will be held on Monday October 9th 2017, on the South Commons in Mansfield, from 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. This free community event is expected to attract hundreds of citizens who enjoy hometown festivals, live performances, visual arts, crafts, and technology driven interactive scavenger / history hunts.

ABOLITION DAY 2017 is an exciting, community-building fall event commemorating Mansfield's proud history of standing together against injustice while standing up for freedom during the most tumultuous time in our country's history. People of all ages and from all backgrounds will come together to stand against injustice and experience a day of courage.

Vendor spaces are limited, so we urge you to apply early.

The temporary food service application must be completed if you do not have a current license. Vendor spaces are on a first-come, first-served basis.

Please visit our website at www.nbdmhc.org for additional information, scheduling, directions, and highlights. You may also email Caitlin Barrows at caitlin@nbdmhc.org. Please note: placement is based on a first-come, first-served basis and property requirements.

Vendor applications must be received on or before Sept.15, 2017. Late submissions will not be accepted.

Sincerely,

2017 ABOLITION DAY COMMITTEE

Supplies and Equipment: Abolition Committee will provide one space, 9'x10' for each participating vendor. Vendors must supply all other equipment, such as displays, clothes, rack, paper goods, plastic utensils, and trash bags. Vendors are responsible for collecting and removing their own trash from vendor booth area. Dumping food or materials into city drains is strictly prohibited, and will result in removal from the event. Vendors are encouraged to make use of decorative displays, Banners must have wind slots. All materials must be kept within the confines of the individual space allotted to each vendor. Generators and exposed grills will not be permitted. Limited on-site security will be provided; however, security, National Black Doll Museum, its officers, event committee, or volunteers shall not be responsible for any items or equipment lost, damaged, or stolen. All food vendors must have a fire extinguisher on site.

Vending Spaces: You may reserve a space by mailing in your completed forms (vendor application, temporary food service application, vendor information/agreement form) and your check or money order for the appropriate amount made payable to National Black Doll Museum please note Abolition Day . Booth locations will be assigned by the event management committee one week prior to date. (Please note: Abolition Day Committee reserves the right to refuse registration to any vendor.) Vendors will receive a confirmation letter and other information needed prior to the event date. This confirmation will confirm your space availability, your registration, and act as your receipt. Each vending space will be marked and numbered. All vendors must remain in the assigned space. Moving and last-minute changes will not be permitted.

Booth space cannot be divided, sublet, or leased to any other party and is not interchangeable. Vendors may sell their products or services within the confines of their vending space only. Roaming vendors will not be permitted.

No loudspeakers, amplification equipment or sound systems are allowed.

Licensing: Food vendors are required to be licensed by the Town of Mansfield. You must provide us a copy of your current MF- Mobile Food Server license along with your Abolition Day vendor application, and display it on site. If you do not possess a current license, please check “temporary food license needed” on the attached/enclosed application form (additional fees apply). This application must be completed and returned by Sept 4, 2017. Confirmation will not be guaranteed until we receive this information.
